How's My Waterway : Telling the Water Story
 Kiki Schneider, US EPA Office of Water
 Dwane Young, US EPA Office of Water

Pulling the Pieces Together: Telling the Water Story

- Provide the public with usable, meaningful information
- Communicate progress states, tribes, and EPA are making towards restoring or protecting water quality
- Engage the public in understanding impacts on water and issues related to water

How's My Waterway

- All information is based on a service
- Tell the story at multiple levels (National, State, Community)
- Integrate data across systems
- Allow for in-depth stories in addition to interactive content
